At the Sunday-school Convention of the Twelfth Kentucky District of the Christian Church, in session Thursday at Millcreek, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, C. L. Sallee; Vice-President, Elwood Tolle; Secretary, Miss Beesie Martin. The Convention will meet next June at Mayslick. Mr. George H. Frank was last year's President. Plans will be formed soon for the proper observance of the centennial of the Christian Church in 1909.

Street Commissioner Ben T. Smith and the Wogglebug are some pumpkins as a team when it comes to moving houses in job lots. Thursday Ben, the Woggle and several hands transferred the city workshop—a good-sized frame building—from Limestone street to the city lot in Second Street Extension, placed in permanent position inside of eight working hours. The Wogglebug did the pulling and Ben did the general overseeing and, well, there was no cussing about it, everything moving serenely.

The Gentry Shows have been consolidated this year and are now positively twice larger than ever before. The entertainment presented by this well known circus firm this year is without doubt their best effort. One can imagine the difference in this year's all new show, when we learn that they have united three of their four shows, which they have previously had on tour, into one big show which will be seen here next Wednesday, August 22d, for two performances at 2:15 in the afternoon and at 8 o'clock sharp at night. Street parade at 10:30 a. m.

Rev. Mr. Hamada of Tokio, Japan, a convert from Buddhism to Christianity about fourteen years ago, will speak at the Union Services to-morrow night in the Opera-house; subject "What Christianity Has Done For Japan." Mr. Hamada comes highly recommended by some of the leading Churches of this country. The universal testimony of all who have heard him is that his lecture is highly entertaining, instructive and helpful. The Sunrise Kingdom of Japan has occupied the attention of the world the last few years, so much interest will be taken in his lecture and it will be listened to with pleasure. Public cordially invited.

THE LEDGER gives place to this communication, which came during the Editor's absence—

MAYSVILLE, KY., August 13th, 1906.

Mr. Thomas A. Davis, Editor Public Ledger—Dear Sir: About a week ago your paper stated that JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER had reduced the price of Coaloil three cents per gallon.

Today your paper states—
"The Standard Oil Company has made a reduction in the price of all grades of refined oil."

I would like for you to inform me where this reduction has been made. There has been no reduction here or at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati market report quotes oil and gasoline at the same figures for the past two months.

It is very embarrassing for me when my patrons, who read your paper, expect to get oil at a reduced price, when in fact no reduction has been made.

Please inform me where I can buy oil at the reduced price as stated in your paper. Respectfully,
CHARLES WETZEL.

Damfino!

The information given out in The Ledger's news columns was obtained through Associated Press telegrams from the oil centers, and it was printed in every other important paper in the United States simultaneously with its appearance in these columns.

If Uncle Jons hasn't reduced his grease "all along the line," he's been guilty of a slick trick, and I hereby turn him over to the tender mercies of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Rebate officials and the Trust busters generally.

By-the-way, every time an advance is announced in price, does the advance reach Maysville?

It appears that Judge GALLOWAY of the Morgantown Circuit understands what the Constitution of Kentucky means when it speaks. He has declared the redistricting acts of the late Legislature unconstitutional, and his opinion is in accord with both common sense and the law. However, when Kentucky has a Legislature that will rise above partisan trickery, the Devil will head a torchlight procession of Saints.

THE Democratic campaign in this state is a few degrees hotter than Hades. Governor BECKHAM, who wants to wear McCREARY's old shoes in the Senate, says McCREARY is the comrade of outlaws, and McCREARY says BECKHAM is "another," while HAYS, who wants to follow BECKHAM as Governor, says BECKHAM is at the head of the Machine that "does as it damn pleases" with the people's money at Frankfort. Altogether, there's more fun than a barrel of monkeys, and the only safe retreat for honest men is in the tall timber.

AUNTIE'S MEMORY.

Boston Herald.

An old colored woman down in Alabama was reputed to be of great age, and was extremely proud of the distinction. The proprietor of a museum, on hearing of her, sent one of his agents to make an investigation, as she would be a valuable acquisition to his museum. The agent plied her with questions regarding her age. He asked her:

"Auntie, do you remember George Washington?"

"Does I remember George Washington? Laws a massy, mistah, I reckon I does, for I done nussed him when he was a chile."

"Well, I suppose you remember the Revolutionary War?"

"Yes, indeed I does, honey. I stood dar lots o' times and seen de bullets flyin' roun' thick as hailstones."

"Well, auntie, how about the fall of the Roman Empire? Do you recollect anything about that?"

She reflected a while and said: "De fact is, honey, I was purty young then, but I does 'member now you speaks of it, dat I did hear de white folks tell 'bout hearin' some 'pin drap 'bout dat time."

Our Washington Letter

Capital Gossip With a Local Tinge

Special Correspondence, Public Ledger.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 15th, 1906.

Owing to the difficulty of the street railroad not reaching to the new Union Station, the B. and O. Railway will not attempt to run passenger trains into the new structure before next spring.

A party of about sixty Kentucky ladies, chaperoned by Daniel W. Bowmar of The Woodford Sun, of Versailles, were enjoying the sights of Washington, Philadelphia and Atlantic City the past week. There were several well known Kentucky editors in the party and they appeared to be having the time of their lives.

But the fair Kentucky dames who are the elect and chosen fifty are those who won trips to Europe in the recent Courier-Journal contest. The large party is composed of nearly three score of the handsomest ideals of Bluegrass beauty. They created quite a sensation in Paris and London, and the monocled Johnnies went into conniption fits over the "dem fine gals, don'tcherknow?" They are now on their return home and will pass through Washington en route.

The "Vesta Tilley hat" has captured the Capital City this spring and summer, and is no doubt much in evidence in other places, including old Kentucky. It's quite the most stunning piece of feminine headgear appearing in a decade, and both sexes are in love with it.

Mr. Wendell W. Mischler, an old Ripley, O., boy, Assistant Private Secretary to Secretary of War Taft, has been called to Murray Bay, Canada, where Mr. Taft is spending his vacation. Mr. Mischler was accompanied by his wife, and they expect to remain there during August and September. He was also employed by Judge Taft when Governor of the Philippines, in the capacity of Private Secretary.

There has been a total of about 600 cases of typhoid fever in the District since Jan. 1st, 1906. The authorities made a feeble show of cleaning up the city recently, but they made a ludicrous failure, as various piles of noisome filth on many streets and lots will amply testify. There is no money available to cut the rank weeds growing on vacant property, and in some sections of Links and had become quite heated from the consequent exertion. In the midst of the game the Jurist drew back his stick to make a brilliant play and instead made a powerful and conspicuous "flake."

Of course, a Supreme Court Justice never swears, but Mr. Harlan, after his failure, drew himself up, grew red in the face, twisted his nose and mouth and appeared to be bursting with internal fury. But he never uttered a word.

One of his distinguished partners in the game now exclaimed with a laugh:

"Well, Mr. Justice Harlan, that was one of the greatest exhibitions of 'blasphemous silence' I ever beheld."

Bishop Potter of New York is another golf enthusiast. Recently the good Bishop visited the Links, where he indulged in some very ham golf playing. Every time he made a bad stroke he would exclaim, "My, my!" or "tut, tut!" At last his young caddy gave the high Churchman the merry ha-ha, and said to him—

THE REAL MAN FROM MAYSVILLE.

There are Maysville men and then there are men from Maysville, but the genuine 24-karat "Man from Maysville," with the hall-mark of the beautiful "Seven Hills City" indelibly blown in the bottle, or rather we should put it, stamped upon his manly brow, swept through the Capital of the Nation last Friday.

We refer to Mr. Harry Carroll Curran, one of the best, if not the very best friend that the Limestone City ever had, or ever will have.

In Hal's journey "back, back, back to Baltimore!" he passed quite close to "Carrollton," the great and famous old estate of his kinsman and namesake, "Charles Carroll of Carrollton," one of the immortal signers of the Declaration of American Independence and the man who laid the first stone in 1828 towards building the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

Charles Carroll of Carrollton was a fearless man and a great hustler. His Maysville namesake has probably inherited at least two of these noble qualities and he wears them with becoming charm and modesty.

However, lest we forget, Mr. Curran was en route to Baltimore on business connected with his office of Assistant to the Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Oddfellows of the United States, which body meets in Toronto, Canada, next month.

Hal is a native of Dover, but in every meaning of the term, truly he is an adopted son of the noble old Bluegrass city of Maysville, to which he is wholly devoted and to whose welfare he has dedicated the best years of his vigorous manhood—"not that he loves Caesar less, but that he loves Rome more." He never allows an opportunity or chance to escape without first tooting a bass megaphone solo in praising old Maysville, her past hallowed history and the rising sun of her brilliant future, which is now quite apparent to the eyes of the entire world. To Hal "Duluth's" fame as a great metropolis has only an empty cymbal sound as compared with Maysville.

He wouldn't swap her Esplanade for all the dowerly parks in New York or Washington.

While Mr. Curran is naturally and peculiarly a "home body," and is loath to absent himself from the corporate limits of his adopted city longer than twenty-four hours, yet he is somewhat of a Bohemian and has visited all the large cities of the Union, including those from New York to San Francisco. But the more he travels, the more anxious he is to get back to Maysville.

For he is where the heart is.

And that is home, sweet home.

Is not the philosophy of home the greatest and most wonderful of all the sciences? It defies and baffles all the arts and efforts of pedants, scoffers or cynics to pull down or destroy one single altar piece from her sacred shrine.

And then to the word "home," add the word "friendship." These are two little words, but they mantle the world with love and forge the invisible chains that bind society together.

Then, here's to friendship and friendship!

Stick to him who sticks to you!

A. F. C.

Hungry Hair

Perhaps your mother has thin hair! But that is no reason why you must go through life with half-starved hair. If you want long, thick, heavy hair, you must feed it. Feed it with a regular hair-food—Ayer's Hair Vigor. Well-fed hair stops falling out, keeps soft and smooth, and grows long and heavy. Feed your starving hair with Ayer's Hair Vigor!

"ON WITH THE DANCE!"

WASHINGTON, KY., Aug. 18th, 1906.

Editor Ledger: Consistency, thou art a precious jewel! A dance given at a Presbyterian Elder's; the daughter of a Presbyterian Preacher in attendance; the daughter and sons of two other Elders, and a grandson of another; the daughter of a most excellent Christian woman taking the Sabbath to return to her home in a distant city; the son of a Presbyterian using God's holy day to travel to his work;—and then the question is asked, Why does not the great Presbyterian Church prosper? It is enough to cause Calvin to turn over in his grave. Let Pastors and Elders answer. G. T.

Chile was rocked by an earthquake Thursday night. The city of Valparaiso is said to have been leveled, and is now said to be a mass of flames. The disaster is thought to rival the quake at San Francisco when that city was rocked to ruin. Buildings were wrecked, and hardly a house escaped without damage. There has been no estimate placed on the loss of life. Fire broke out in different parts of the city shortly after the quake occurred.

CONFIRMED PROOF.

Residents of Maysville Cannot Doubt What Has Been Twice Proved.

In gratitude for complete relief from aches and pains of bad backs—from distressing kidney ills—thousands have publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of Maysville, who so testified years ago, now say their cures were permanent. This testimony doubly proves the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills to Maysville kidney sufferers.

A. W. McClannahan, of A. W. and R. P. McClannahan, grocers, at 121 Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I can endorse Doan's Kidney Pills more heartily today than I did five years ago when I told the Maysville people that this medicine had cured me of severe kidney trouble and backache that had bothered me more or less for twenty years and seemed to be growing worse and worse all the time. I repeat that I can more confidently recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today than I did in that testimonial because my cure has been permanent and I have had no kidney trouble for nearly five years. As proof that I am a firm believer in Doan's Kidney Pills I will be only too pleased to reiterate the above to anyone who may inquire. I got the remedy at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
